

Greenburgh Housing Authority

Memorandum

TO: All Residents
FROM: The Management Office
DATE: April 19, 2022
RE: Office Reopening

Now that New York has reopened, we will begin opening the office in a restricted manner.

Tenants will be permitted into the office by appointment only in certain cases.

- Appointments must be scheduled and approved in advance with the department you wish to visit. (Please ring bell at front door)
 - Masks must be worn. If tenant is not wearing a mask, there will be no entry, and you must reschedule your appointment for another day.
 - Social distancing is applicable.
 - Upon entry, you will be required to complete a health screening as recommended by CDC guidelines.
 - No more than two (2) people will be permitted for an appointment. Any additional people who show up will not be allowed to enter the building. (Social Distancing)
 - All other Housing and Section 8 questions and concerns will continue to be addressed by calling and leaving a message for your department, or by emailing the staff member directly.
 - Paperwork and payments should be left in the secure lock box located outside the office door. Lock boxes are emptied at 8:30am and 1:30pm.
 - Community room is still closed for public till further notice.
